Does P1S Share your Information with Others?

P1S does not sell or rent Application user names, addresses, e-mail addresses or other personal information to any non-affiliated entity. We may share the information we collect about you and your use of the Application with our affiliates, including other Wolters Kluwer businesses. As necessary, your personal information may be processed by third parties in connection with your use of various features of the Application, P1S's provision of the Application and/or the services available through the Application. P1S may share your information, including anonymized aggregate data that we collect automatically about our users' use of the Application with our trusted service providers who work on our behalf to assist us in analyzing the data. P1S does share information that we collect about your usage of the Application with the customer site administrator(s) for your site. We do not otherwise disclose your information to third parties, unless permitted by law, required by law, in connection with a legal claim or proceeding or when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request. In the event of a sale of some or all of our business or assets, P1S will disclose your personal information to a purchaser or potential purchasers.

COPPA

We are committed to protecting the privacy of children. You should be aware that the Application is not intended or designed to be used by children under the age of 13. We do not collect personally identifiable information from any person we actually know is a child under the age of 13. No one under the age of 18 should submit any personal information to the Application without the consent of a parent or guardian. If a parent or guardian becomes aware that his or her child has provided us with information without their consent, he or she should contact us at info@pharmacyonesource.com. We will delete such information from our files within a reasonable time.

Security

P1S uses commercially reasonable security measures to protect the information you give us. Please be aware that, although we endeavor to provide reasonable security for information we process and maintain, no security system can prevent all potential security breaches. While we take reasonable steps to protect your personal information, you accept that no Internet data transmission can be guaranteed to be secure from access by unintended recipients and will not hold us responsible for any breach of security.

About Cookies

Cookies are files that Customer's web browser places on Customer's computer's hard drive and are used to tell us whether you have used the Application previously. P1S uses a persistent cookie to help save and retrieve usernames used on the Application. P1S issues a session cookie only to record encrypted authentication information for the duration of a specific session. The session cookie does not include the username or password of the user. The Application will not function properly if you remove or disable the cookies.

Acceptance of Privacy Policy and Modifications

By accessing and using the Application, you consent to our collection, use and disclosure of your information as described in this privacy policy. P1S reserves the right to occasionally make changes to its privacy policy or practices. You should therefore review this policy from time to time to get updated information about how we collect, share and use your information. We will notify you of any changes in our privacy policy by posting the revised policy within the Application and providing notice to users through the Application. Further, web-based applications, products or services or the websites of third parties or our affiliates that you access from the Application may be subject to different privacy policies. Please review the terms of those websites and/or applications, products or services carefully as their privacy policies will differ from ours.
